Overview

The TCDLA Advanced Federal Criminal Law Seminar returns once again to New Orleans. The seminar will be held in the penthouse conference room of the Monteleone Hotel, with majestic views of the city and the Mississippi River. The seminar is geared to bring the federal law practitioner up to date on current issues in trial, sentencing, and appeal of both simple and complex federal criminal cases. While each topic is presented by an outstanding speaker, of special note is experienced Supreme Court advocate Jeff Green of the Washington, D.C., law firm Sidley & Austin, who will speak on techniques for getting and winning your case in the highest court in the land; Philadelphia public defender Rob Epstein, speaking on the latest on forensic science challenges in federal court; and Houston's own Margy Meyers, updating us on the latest changes to the Federal Rules of Evidence. All to that mix great speakers like Gerry Goldstein, Tim Crooks, Mike Heiskell, and Fifth Circuit Judge Edward C. Prado, and you have a program that is a must for all federal criminal law practitioners. Come join us in the French Quarter for this exciting and informative foray into federal law!
