Federal Law

Co - sponsored with Federal Public Defender's Office for the Northern District of Texas and Lubbock Criminal Defense Lawyers Association

Lubbock, Texas : October 28, 2010 4.25 CLE including 1.0 Ethics

Course Directors

Richard Anderson

Overview

The program is designed to be informative to both the occasional and experienced Federal Criminal Defense practitioner. Since Booker, sentencing advocacy is critical to the successful representation of a client, and the program emphasizes techniques for that unique phase of the case. The program is put on by the Federal Public Defenders Office for the Northern District of Texas in partnership with TCDLA as part of their continuing obligation to educate the Federal Criminal Bar in representing indigent clients.
