Presentation: The VA-DOJ Guardianship MOU: Due Process, Institutional Conflicts, & What Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Need to Know

Presenter: Bradley Hennings

Date: Thursday, July 30, 2026

Time: 12:00 – 1:00 pm

CLE: 0, 0 ethics

Overview: When a veteran is deemed unable to manage financial affairs, the consequences can extend far beyond benefits administration. Join us for a timely discussion of the VA-DOJ Guardianship Memorandum of Understanding and its impact on due process rights, guardianship proceedings, and the unique challenges facing veterans involved in the legal system. This roundtable will explore potential institutional conflicts, emerging legal concerns, and practical considerations for Texas criminal defense lawyers advocating for veteran clients. Stay informed on an issue where disability, guardianship, and constitutional rights intersect.

Bio: Mr. Hennings is a Partner at Chisholm Chisholm & Kilpatrick, where he focuses on veterans law before the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. Prior to joining the firm, he served as a Veterans Law Judge with the Board of Veterans' Appeals and held several positions within the VA and the Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. He currently serves as Vice Chair of the State Bar of Texas Military and Veterans Law Section (2024–2025) and has held numerous leadership roles within national veterans law organizations. A frequent speaker and published author on veterans law, Mr. Hennings holds a B.A. from George Washington University, an M.S. from Stevens Institute of Technology, and a J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law–Newark.
