Overview

This is an intensive four-day course designed to teach methods and techniques that improve a trial lawyer's ability to discover their client's story and how to effectively communicate their story to the jury, judge, or prosecutor. This is not a traditional CLE with PowerPoints and presentations; instead, this course involves a hands-on approach to bettering your trial skills through group work with fellow attorneys. The course incorporates concepts from psychodrama which aid in discovering the story of the client by putting the story into action. By reenacting events of a case with fellow lawyers, the course will allow the trial lawyer to develop skills to strengthen their opening statements, cross-examination, direct questioning, and closing arguments. The training involves a component of self-exploration which helps to improve and enhance the trial lawyer's ability to communicate with juries. Should you have any questions about the course or the concept of psychodrama, feel free to contact one of the course directors.

Comments from Previous Attendees:

- This program should be required by all lawyers. You can be the smartest lawyer in Texas, but if you can't find the true story and communicate with the jury, your client loses. This seminar is a unique opportunity that will improve your ability to help your clients in and outside courtroom. This workshop is one that you can't afford not to attend. It is difficult to put into words, but the evaluations for this seminar were the highest marks I've ever seen at a TCDLA seminar. As you can tell from the schedule, we work hard but have fun learning.
- (It) has changed the way I practice law & the way I live my life.
- I was energized after last year's seminar. It was great and the students were totally into it. Your potential as a trial lawyer is only as far away as the distance between your head and your heart.

- This is the best course I have taken by far. The instructors were top notch; you cannot get education of this quality outside of the Ranch. Nothing will make you a better lawyer than understanding yourself and your jurors.
