Presentation: Taxes

Presenter: Mehr Singh

Date: Wednesday, November 18, 2026

Time: 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm

CLE: 1.00, 0 ethics

Overview: This program offers new defense lawyers a simple, practical guide to handling their own taxes. It covers the basics of income reporting, common deductions, and smart recordkeeping, along with tips to avoid costly mistakes. Designed for busy attorneys, the session helps build confidence in managing personal taxes efficiently and accurately.

Bio: Mehr was raised in Lubbock and fully embodies traditional West Texas values. With hard work and perseverance, Mehr graduated 1st in his class from Texas Tech University with a Bachelor's Degree in History, and then went on to Cincinnati University School of Law.

Upon passing the Texas Bar exam in 2014, Mehr immediately immersed himself into criminal defense, representing the rights of those accused in crimes ranging from misdemeanor theft all the way to murder. In 2018, Mehr began working at the Law Offices of Hurley, Guinn & Singh where he focuses on DWI/DUI and intoxication offenses. Whether it be suppressing an illegal stop, winning an ALR hearing, or fighting for a Not Guilty verdict, Mehr gets results.

Mehr is a member of Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association, Lubbock Criminal Defense Lawyers Association and the National College of DUI Attorneys.
