

TCDLA Indigent Defense

Livestream Event– February 19, 2021: CLE 8.0 including 1.0 Ethics

Course Directors

- Lynn Pride Richardson – Dallas
- Rick Wardroup – Lubbock

Overview

Attorneys representing indigent clients often face unique challenges in their practices. The clients are often unique, as well as the cases that bring them to the justice system. The indigent Defense seminars are designed to provide a broad overview of issues most relevant to attorneys who represent indigent clients.

General Information

NOTE: Please read before registering: you may not register for this program if you are, or are working for, or are affiliated, clerking or interning with: a full-time law enforcement officer, a full or part-time state or federal prosecutor, or if you are a full or part-time criminal defense attorney who is currently acting as a prosecutor or special prosecutor in a capital case (unfortunately, no exceptions).

*Tuition will be used to cover future expenses of TCDLA's grant programs or to provide for items that the grant cannot sufficiently cover.

**Voluntary contributions go to support The Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association (TCDLA), a nonprofit organization, and will go directly to TCDLA's private fund account.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Written notice must be received 5 business days prior to the program (E-mail: mschank@tcdla.com). After this date, no refunds, but substitution of attendees will be permitted with prior approval. Registrants who paid tuition and are not entitled to a refund can receive the course materials. Note: Tuition waiver recipients must attend the program to receive materials.

Tax Notice: $36 of your annual dues ($19 if a student member) is for a one-year subscription to the VOICE for the Defense. Dues to TCDLA are not deductible as a charitable contribution but may be deducted as an ordinary business expense.
