Overview:

The Disciplinary Rules are about to be amended after all the proposed changes were approved by the State Bar. There are several changes that will directly impact criminal defense attorneys in areas such as dealing with mentally impaired clients, exceptions to confidentiality rules, and lawyer advertising. This event will discuss those changes and their practical effect for criminal defense attorneys.

Speakers:

Brent Mayr is the co-chair for the TCDLA and HCCLA Ethics Committees and has lectured on various ethics topics for TCDLA and local criminal defense lawyers associations throughout the State. He is Board Certified in Criminal Law and managing shareholder of Mayr Law, P.C., a criminal defense law firm based in Houston. He is a former prosecutor and briefing attorney on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and has been named to Super Lawyers every year since 2014.
