Overview

TCDLA is proud to invite capital litigators to the Capital Defense/Mental Health Training in San Antonio, Wednesday, June 20, 2018. This program will lead into the 31st Annual Rusty Duncan seminar. This training is designed to add depth to the lawyer's understanding and engagement with clients with mental illnesses and intellectual disability. While at the training, you will be able to network with speakers and other capital litigators who attend. The first forty capital lawyers who confirm attendance at the program qualify for travel reimbursement.
