

Capital Litigation Seminar – Limited Attendance

San Antonio, Texas : June 23, 2021: 6.0 CLE including 1.0 Ethics

Course Directors
Rick Wardroup – Lubbock, TX

Overview

Is there a rational path for Texans to follow toward abolition of the death penalty? Colorado is the most recent of a number of states which no longer authorize the execution of its citizens. Doug Wilson, formerly one of the leaders in the Colorado Public Defender's Office, will describe how the change came to pass in Colorado and which strategies that worked there are likely to ultimately work in Texas.

General Information

NOTE: Please read before registering: you may not register for this program if you are, or are working for, or are affiliated, clerking or interning with: a full-time law enforcement officer, a full or part-time state or federal prosecutor, or if you are a full or part-time criminal defense attorney who is currently acting as a prosecutor or special prosecutor in a capital case (unfortunately, no exceptions).

*Tuition will be used to cover future expenses of TCDLA's grant programs or to provide for items that the grant cannot sufficiently cover.

Voluntary contributions go to support The Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association (TCDLA), a nonprofit organization, and will go directly to TCDLA's private fund account.

CANCELLATION POLICY: Written notice must be received 5 business days prior to the program (E-mail: mschank@tcdla.com). After this date, no refunds, but substitution of attendees will be permitted with prior approval. Registrants who paid tuition and are not entitled to a refund can receive the course materials. Note: Tuition waiver recipients must attend the program to receive materials.

Tax Notice: $36 of your annual dues ($19 if a student member) is for a one year subscription to the VOICE for the Defense. Dues to TCDLA are not deductible as a charitable contribution but may be deducted as an ordinary business expense.
